PROGRAM IDENTIFICATION

Stream 2: Indigenous Community Business Fund (ICBF)

Indigenous Community Business Fund provides non-repayable contributions where community-owned business revenues have been negatively affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, resulting in businesses having insufficient funds to cover daily operating and /or adaptation costs. The intent of the funding is to ensure that businesses continue to operate post-pandemic.

INDIGENOUS COMMUNITY BUSINESS FUND ATTESTATION

Businesses, communities and collectives applying to the Indigenous Community Business Fund (ICBF) must attest to the following and include the signed attestation along with the application.

I hereby attest, represent and warrant that:

1. The applicant operates a business in one of the provinces of Canada.
2. The applicant's business has been in operation at minimum since October 1, 2019.
3. The business was solvent, viable and not declared bankrupt prior to the COVID-19 crisis.
4. The applicant's business is at least 51% Indigenous owned and controlled.
5. The applicant plans to continue to operate the business or resume operations.
6. The business is currently, and expects to continue, to operate at a loss (i.e.: to incur ongoing expenses that are higher than incoming revenues), as a direct result of COVID-19.
7. Activities and related costs, for which Indigenous Community Business Fund program funding is being sought, are in accordance with Stream 2 criteria of ICBF Program Guidelines.
8. The applicant attests that they have either applied for federal business support and been declined, in whole or in part, to meet the need, or do not qualify under federal business support eligibility criteria. This may include applications to more than one federal program depending on the requested support including, but not limited to:
 - Business Credit Availability Program (BCAP)
 - Canada Emergency Business Account (CEBA)
 - Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (CEWS)
 - Canada Emergency Commercial Rent Assistance (CECRA)
 - Regional Relief and Recovery Fund (RRRF)
 - Large Employer Emergency Financing Facility (LEEFF)
 - Other federal support programs targeted at businesses
9. The undersigned has the authority to sign on behalf of the organization, and attests that all information provided in this application is true and as accurate as possible based on currently available information. The applicant understands that any information may be subject to audit and verification for accuracy.
